WEST VIRGINIA TAKES PART IN CAPITAL NEWS

Events of Washington, D. C., Are Reported by Telegram's Correspondent There.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Mrs. Charles M. Martin, of Parkersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Lippitt, of Porto Rico—the latter formerly Miss Helen Wilson—are here this week to attend the marriage of Mrs. Martin's niece, Miss Marie Durant, to Mr. Earl Kellie Burton, which will be solemnized this evening at All Souls Memorial church in Chevy Chase. Mr. Durant, the mother of the bride, entertained yesterday with a large tea in honor of Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Lippitt and other out-of-town guests here for the ceremony.

A marriage license was issued here today to Alfred C. Cardes, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Sarah F. Creamer, of this city.

Miss Martha Berger, of Chatterbox, is a guest of relatives in Washington, having come here to attend the marriage of Mrs. Willie Joe Rogan, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Garber, and Paul Elfinger, of Harland, Ky., which took place today.

Mrs. J. Byron Nickerson, wife of the efficient secretary to Congressman Neely, is spending the month of June with relatives in Charleston.

Members of the West Virginia Society of the district are planning to hold a West Virginia celebration on Tuesday, June 20, at the same time festivities are being conducted in the home state. J. William DeGrange has charge of the evening's entertainment, which will consist of speeches by former West Virginians and a musical program, followed by a buffet supper.

An automobile owned and operated by Everett L. Cecil, of Clarksburg, W. Va., collided yesterday afternoon at the junction of Belt Road and Day-enport street, with a motor car driven by a Washington young man named Goble. Goble was thrown to the ground and bruised, but not seriously hurt. As there were a number of bystanders who exonerated young Cecil of any blame, he was not held for an inquiry.

Congressman Sutherland has secured for Mrs. Ellen Conrad, of Martinsburg, the accrued pension due at the time of her husband's death. He has asked the pension bureau to furnish a duplicate discharge to Stephen Kennedy, of Moundsville, who reported the loss of his discharge papers. The president today signed the bill introduced by Mr. Sutherland, to give a pension of $40 to William R. Cole, of Cameron. Mr. Sutherland has taken up with the pension bureau the application of Mrs. Susan C. Turner, of Reedsville, widow of Thomas A. Turner.

Congressman-at-large Howard Sutherland arrived today from his home at Elkins. This is the first time Mr. Sutherland has been here since a couple of weeks before the primary election. He was congratulated on all sides over his victorious race for the senatorial nomination. Many of his friends called at his office, and his congressional colleagues surrounded him to congratulate him when he appeared on the floor of the House.

An interstate commerce commission investigation into the whole subject of wages and hours of labor of railroad employees will be urged by the chamber of commerce of the United States under authorization of a referendum of its members just completed. The member organizations of the national body, comprising commercial bodies in forty-three states, voted in favor of an investigation.

Maximum, minimum and average wages paid, hours of service and comparative scales and conditions in force in other industries would be thoroughly investigated under the plan, in conjunction with the relation of wages to revenues and any other subject the commission might deem relevant.

SKETCHES OF LITTLE OLD NEW YORK
BY O. O. McINTYRE
Telegram Bureau: Rooms 121-122, Hotel Majestic, West Seventy-second Street.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Percy Ames is back from the war zone and is the center of a group of cronies down in Washington Square. He is a good story teller and is forced to regale them with stories from the other side. He tells of a mustering officer, a sergeant who met on the street of an English coast village a strapping, upstanding youngster of 21 years.

The officer hailed him, "Se'ere, me lad," he said, "are you in good health?"

"I are," stated the youth.

"Are you married?"

"I aren't."

"Ave you anyone dependent on you?"

"I ave not."

"Then your king and country need you. Why don't you enlist?"

"What?" he said. "With this blooming war going on? You must think I am a silly fool."

There is a bridge guess who teaches devotees of the game at so much per hour. James Murray, of the New York American, has an author friend who got into a game with the expert the other evening.

Murray asked him afterward how he came out. "Oh, I did all right," he said. "She never criticized my playing at all during the entire set. But once when I spilled the cards on the floor just before dealing she said, 'The idiot can't even shuffle the cards.'"

Just a few of the old time cabbies are left. They hang out in Herald Square and patronize the famous old lunch wagon there just as they did twenty-five years ago. The automobiles took their work away and not one of them would learn to be a chauffeur. In fact the records show that not an old time cabbie is now driving a taxi.

It was not because they could not learn to drive a machine that they did not, but it was because they did not want to. It is their belief that any simpleton can drive a machine, but that you have to know nature to know how to make a horse love you.

So it was that many of them were too proud and as a result they are now drifting about from odd job to odd job and many of them have gone to the infirmary.

Little John McGraw could have Manhattan Island just now for less than what the old Indian is reputed to have taken for it. He is the most popular man in town and a few weeks ago they were ready to hang him. But such is baseball.

We saw him the other day in a hotel lobby. The cigar counter and the telephone girls left their work to look and admire a fleet of bell-boys, porters and doormen stood around in open mouthed wonder. But McGraw knows how changeable the public is and he is so used to basking in the spotlight that there are very few thrills in it for him.

With him was Christy Mathewson. They sat in two lounge chairs for twenty-five minutes and scarcely a word passed between them. No doubt they are thinking of fall weather when they can pack up their guns and go shooting. Mathewson goes to Missouri again this fall to shoot clay pigeons against Dr. F. M. Plank's team which defeated him so badly last year and McGraw is going to go along and watch.

Irene Castle's visit to her husband at his training camp in England seems to end all rumors that they were to be divorced. She was dining at the Beaux Arts the other evening surrounded by admiring acquaintances and friends. She spoke affectionately of Vernon and said that he looked "too cute for anything."
